All warrants are based upon the Smith cold storage law enacted in 1917.

First violations are punishable by a fine of not more than $500 and for each subsequent offense a fine of not less than $1,000 and jail sentence of not less than 60 days.

A statement issued by Governor Cox says the complaints are based upon the operation of cold storage plants without licenses, the hoarding of deadbeefs over the period stipulated by law, and the defacement of, and/or destruction of records which would show the time the supplies were received in this state," said Governor Cox said.

LICKING VILLAGES CAN BUY MEATS

Mayor Sends Out First Food To Johnstown — Other Villages to Get Call at Later Date.

Mayor Atherton is sending a truck load of bacon, corned beef and roast beef to Johnstown today and the mayor of that village will secure space in a store room and place it on sale so that the residents may secure the benefit of the reduced prices.

It is probable that truck loads of meat will also be shipped to Utica, Pataskala, Hanover and Granville. If the people of those villages desire the meats it will be sent there and placed in charge of the mayors of the different towns.

The supply in this city is not near exhausted and the fire station ladies will keep their stores open each evening.

Mayor Atherton closed his municipal market in the Peoples market yesterday afternoon for the reason that there was no trade. It being a half holiday and everyone evidently taking advantage of that fact. The market was open bright and early this morning and will be kept open this evening and all day tomorrow. The submarkets at the fire stations will also operate tonight and tomorrow night.

JITNEY BUS LINES

hour, overtime pay and recognition of miscellaneous men as members of the union.

Company officials offered to increase the wages of the trainmen three cents per hour. They now get from 42 to 45 cents per hour, according to the length of time of their service. They ask overtime pay for all work they do over ten hours. The company recognized the trainmen as members of the union, but refused to recognize the miscellaneous men.

Not a car moved from here after 1:00 a.m. following the arrival of the last car in Springfield from Columbus. Efforts of a committee of Lima business men to have that trainmen continue work failed at a meeting held at midnight Thursday in the labor temple here.

James Largay, organizer of the trainmen, and Dan Jones, chairman of the executive council, emphasized Friday that the strike will be conducted in an orderly manner and the men were urged at their meeting Thursday night not to resort to violence.

BUS LINE TO TAKE PLACE OF INTERURBAN

The route will be the Jacksontown and National Pikes and stops will be made at the following towns and intermediate points: Jacksontown, Hebron, Kirksville, Etna, Wagram, Reynoldsburg and Columbus. Connections will be made with an automobile service line at Hebron for Buckeye Lake. The automobile line from Hebron to Buckeye Lake is also operated by the same company and prompt service will be given all patrons for Buckeye Lake. The new bus line will be permanent and every attention will be given to patrons.

PITTSBURGH STREET CARS ARE TIED UP

Pittsburgh, Pa., Aug. 15.—For the second time in less than four months Pittsburgh found itself in the grip of a street car strike today. Trolley traffic ceased at midnight last night when a strike of three thousand motormen and conductors of the Pittsburgh Railways company went into effect.

The Carmen declared they will remain idle until the receivers of the company yield to their demands for a minimum hour increase in wages while the receivers aver that they will abide by the recent decision of the war board, granting the men an increase of slightly more than five cents an hour.

In an effort to bring the strike to a termination, civic organizations and business men of the city are planning to petition the federal court, which has jurisdiction over the receivers to grant the demands of the union.

The city met the situation as best it could, and while hundreds of downtown workers who reside in outlying suburbs failed to reach their places of business, thousands of others took advantage of shuttle trains and automobile bus lines which came to life over night. Many business concerns carried their employees to work in trucks, while other firms established free automobile transportation services for their employees.

Officials of the Amalgamated Association of Street and Electric Railway Employees do not look with favor on the vote of the local union to strike, according to messages received from W. D. Mahon and W. B. Fitzgerald, leading executives of the international organization who declare that the walkout was contrary to the rules of the association in view of the fact that the car men had entered into an agreement with the receivers to abide by any award of the war labor board.

One man was killed and five others injured, one probably fatally when a motor truck carrying men to work on Neville Island, skidded and crashed into a telephone pole at 9 o'clock this morning.

STRIKERS IN RIOT STATE TROOPS CALLED

Butler, Pa., Aug. 15.—Blooming broke out today among the striking workmen at the Standard Steel Car plant here and because of the threatening situation troopers of the state constabulary were summoned. This is the tenth day of the strike and the first that any disturbance has developed.

CITY WILL NOT GIVE POLICE PROTECTION

Lima, Aug. 15.—The strike of 225 Ohio Electric employees on city and interurban lines went into effect at midnight. No effort is being made by the company to move cars. Mayor Simpson has announced that the city will make no attempt to protect the operation of cars.

JERSEY BREEDERS SHOW 31 HEAD OF CATTLE

The Licking Jersey Cattle club organized last spring, held its first picnic and show at Mountbuilders park last week. The picnic part was as usual accompanied with good things to eat, but the cattle show was unusual.

Plans were carried out to exhibit some of the best animals from the local herds, that the breeders might see "who is who" in Jersey society. As a result Stevens & Son brought out nine head, Dan Keller and Frank Osborn each six, W. Stadden and John Walker each three, W. C. Hall and Homer Shaw two each—making 31 head in all.

Mr. Fols of Springfield, a prominent breeder of Jerseys, placed the ribbons which proved to be no small job. Prizes were awarded as follows:

Berlin, Thursday, Aug. 14.—The United States military mission assigned to Germany after the armistice and which has had its headquarters in Berlin, will be dissolved in the course of the next month and will leave for home early in September.

AMUSEMENTS

AUDITORIUM

HUMAN DESIRE.

Large and enthusiastic crowds saw Anita Stewart in her 4th First National Exhibitor Circuit offering of the Auditorium yesterday, as Bernice. She is the Italian wench, played at some that did not reflect upon her the manner she deserved. The story is a good one told by leaving Italy, coming to America where she meets the artist, Joseph Bruce who is married, his wife having left him, is called to his boyhood home owing to illness of his mother. He sends for a woman to be company for Bernice and starts. Hardly has he gone until his wife appears. She at once demands of Bernice the reason for her presence in her husband's home, and is told by the innocent girl that she is living there. A moment later Mrs. Bruce discovers the baby, and thereupon heaps upon the craved admiration. Sylvia heard of it and broke off the engagement.

Then came the crash. Old man Gaselli failed and left Sylvia penniless. She came to New York and worked in a department store, where an old actor, seeing her, was struck with her beauty and offered her a position. In a few years she was a blazing electric light star.

Sylvia was willing to forgive Paul all his errors and forget his marriage to the woman who had brought a divorce to marry him. Finally through an accident the opportunity came. But poor, spineless Paul reflected that a marriage with Sylvia might injure his soiled sounding. He told Sylvia so. There was no acting in the scene. Sylvia staged for his benefit. She amply upheld the traditions of scorned women in all ages. That night on the stage she told the artist, who had made a siren head of the girl all manner of condemnation and rebuke. She turns Bernice into the street after telling her coldly that the artist is a married man.

Bearing the child, Bernice wanders away into the city. After the death of the baby, which cannot be given proper care, Bernice is finally found by the former model and given a home. Miserable in her loneliness, wringing still from bitter accusations of Mrs. Bruce and hungering for baby fingers to caress her, Bernice fights circumstances with a heavy heart until fate intervenes and by a swift turn in events uses effort to quit drink, that she would marry him and make him rich.

A comedy, also Pathé News will be seen also.

THE BUSINESS OUTLOOK.

Writers on business topics could formerly predict the commercial future with some confidence. Signs of storm were as clearly marked as by a barometer. But in these unprecedented times, past experience throws little light on the future.

On the surface the business situation is of the most favorable kind. Bank clearings have been rising to the highest figures ever recorded. Most of the railroad net earnings for June have now been published, and show marked improvement. Commercial failures are at a very low point.

Yet there are many cautionary signals in the financial weather. The price situation is bad. The constant increase of living costs must tend to check business. Labor troubles will check production and frighten capitalists from undertaking new enterprises. Europe shows a disposition to discourage imports from the United States in all lines but those very essential to reconstruction.

With such indications as these, the business community should steer clear of speculation. The enormous amount of money being put into oil stock is not a favorable symptom. A great many men may find themselves tied up before long with unsaleable or worthless securities while their creditors are demanding cash. Land speculation is proceeding recklessly in many sections, and will tie up capital needed to float business.

Yet no reason exists today why any legitimate enterprise should curtail operations. More money is in the hands of the working masses than ever before. They are going to be able to keep buying for a good while under any conditions. As long as they keep buying, all the producing industries can market their goods freely. These are times when it is safe to produce in large volume, but not to speculate.

Hats off to the Licking county war organization. These men who have put this county over the top in every war activity to date unanimously refused last night to quit the job until Licking county reaches its W. S. S. quota and wins the Victory shaft.

Wonder why the Mt. Clemens jury didn't make it 33 cents instead of six? The extra three of course represent the customary 10 per cent war tax.

Having serenely observed how the Garden West is coming up to the householder, let us consequently exhort him to buy the Walks Inn.

In these times of social unrest and disturbance, the only way to get peace and quiet is to resort to a boiler factory or trap hammer plant.

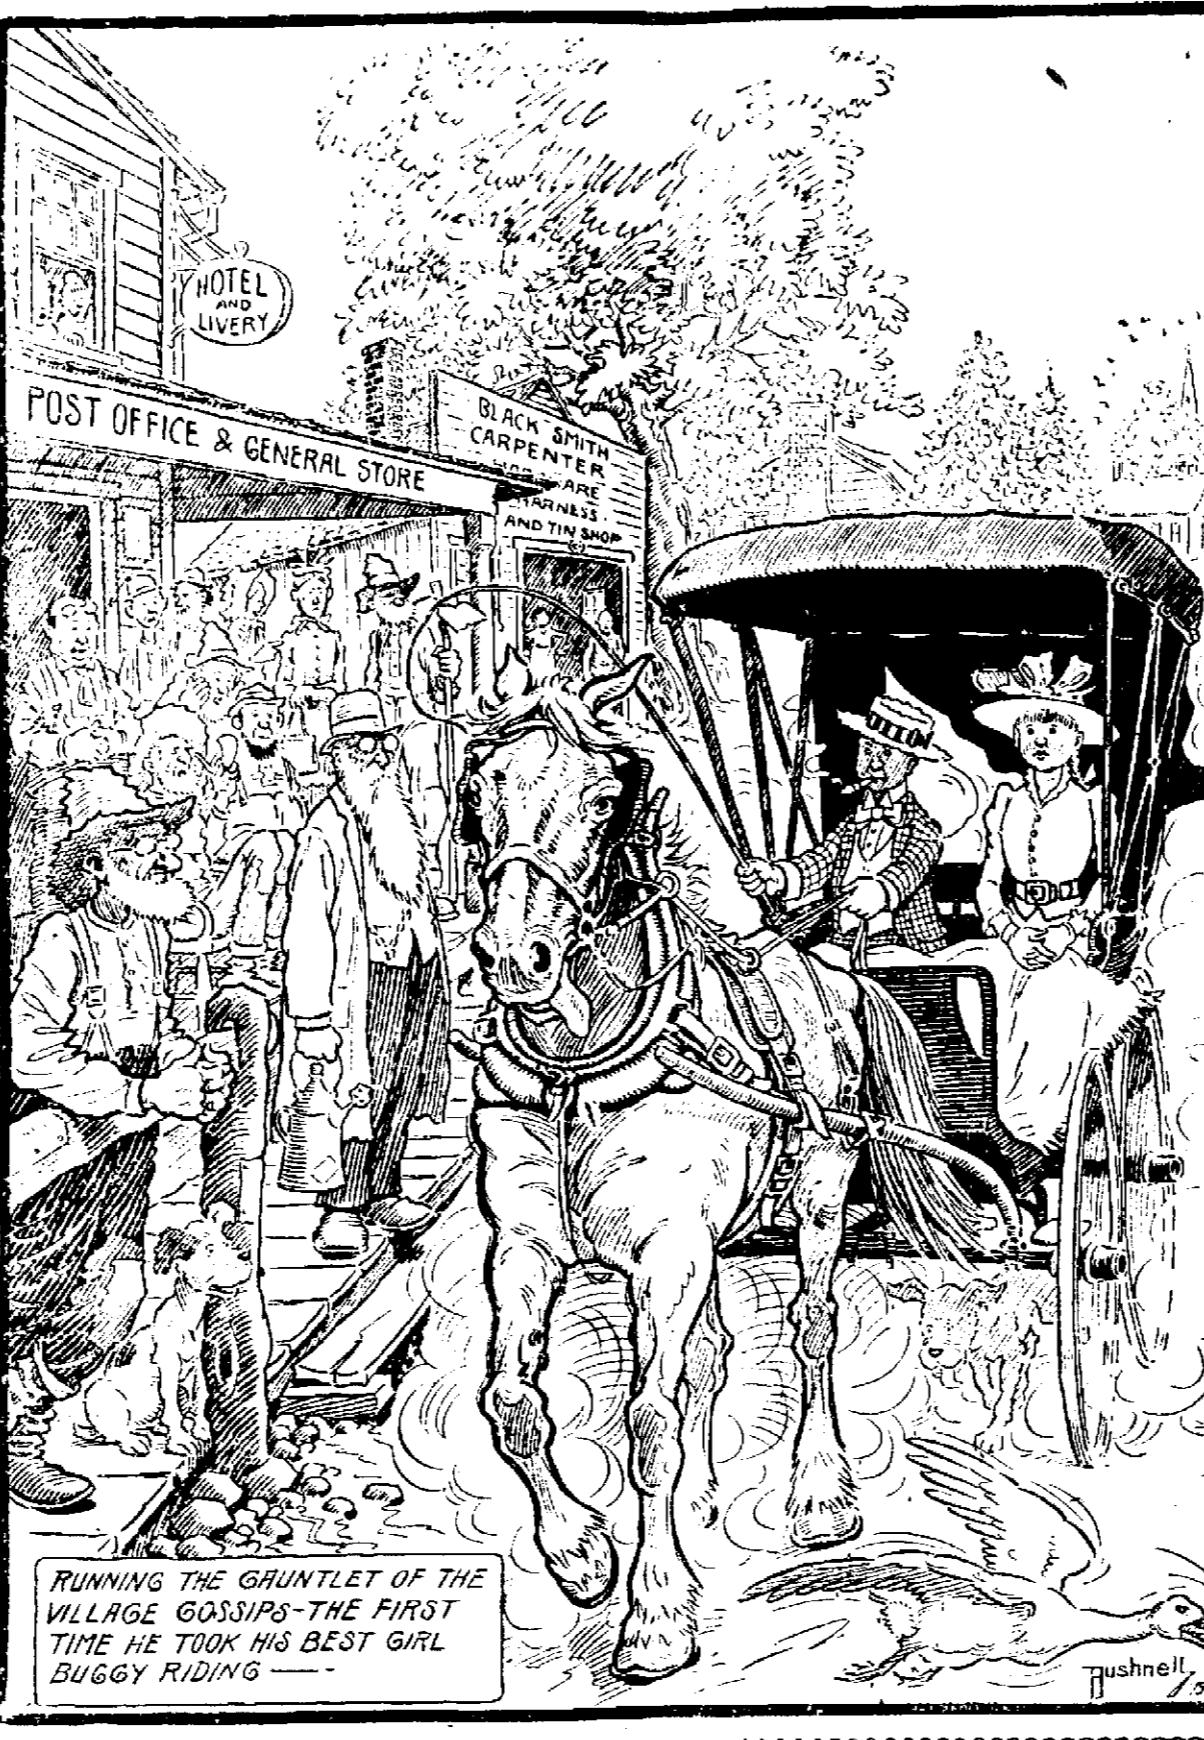

New if everyone can get an adequate in wages of 50 per cent more of all kinds of goods will merely go up 100 per cent.

The Newark street car strike is on. But then the doctors say that walking is the best exercise in the world.

A shortage of agricultural labor is reported but there are plenty of people willing to serve as farm advisers.

Who can remember the kind of ball team Cincinnati used to have? Well, it's different now.

"THOSE WERE THE DAYS!"

A BRAVE SENATOR.

(Columbus Dispatch.)

At this time, when public men are supposed to be afraid to express their opinions for fear of losing votes, Senator Pomerene steps to the front as a man of courage. "I shall always be open to conviction," he says, in reply to a committee who wrote him concerning the Plum plan, "but I never yet have yielded to an threat, and I never will." He certainly did not yield in expressing his opinion of the Plum plan.

"The Plum plan," the senator says, "is the most vicious piece of legislation that has been presented to congress since I have been in the senate. I would feel that I was contributing to the ruin not only of the transportation system of the country but to its financial and industrial breakdown if I voted for it. It would lead not only to the ruin of the whole people but to every railroad as well."

A number of men wrote to the senator informing him that they were in favor of the plan and believed that it was in the interest of the masses. They also informed him that a sort of survey was being taken of the attitude of public men and they wanted to know where he stood on the proposition. Not only did he tell them where he stood, but he asked the letter writers many questions himself, as follows:

"If the Plum plan is sound economically and is for the interests of the masses, why do you not suggest that similar legislation be adopted whereby all public utilities, including water works, electric light plants, gas and heating plants, be purchased and turned over to their employees and operated over to their employees and operated respectively? If it is sound and in the interest of the masses, why do you not suggest that all coal mines, iron and copper mines, be purchased by the government and be turned over to their operatives in the same way?"

Why do you not suggest that all manufacturing and industrial plants of the country be purchased with government funds or by the issuance of government bonds and turned over to their operatives in the same way?" Why do you not advise that all the stores be purchased and turned over to their employees in the same way?" Why do you not recommend that all the banks of the country be acquired by the government and turned over to their operatives?" Why do you not ask in the interests of the masses that the government purchase all the farms of the country and turn them over to the operators on the farms?" And lastly, may I suggest that one man who happens to own two houses, one of which he rents, why do you not ask that the second house shall be bought by the government and turned over to the operator in the same way?" Why do you not recommend that all the banks of the country be acquired by the government and turned over to their operatives?"

The question naturally arises how far upward does a real estate owner's rights extend, or where is the base of the pyramid. It might add interest to this subject to note that the Jews divided the heavens or the space above the earth into three parts. Their first heaven was the atmospheric regions around the earth where birds fly, rain, hail and snow are formed, and where lightning flashes. Their second was the regions farther away, where the moon, planets, suns and stars play in their orbits, and their third heaven was the dwelling place of Jehovah, habitation of angels and where Christ ascended after his resurrection. Some ancient writers speak of persons being raised to the third heaven. With this in mind we must conclude that the base of the pyramid is found somewhere in the first heaven and the second tier of the earth is across section parallel with the base and a line extending up from down.

No cars or other vehicles have no right to run upon roads over farms, in setting the rights of others, neither have on machines any right to set over rural and urban communities on disturbing life and property.

But these mundane conveyances are here to stay and no sensible progress person should throw any impediment in their rapid march which have traveled and will bless humanity.

Legislative bodies have enacted laws controlling automobile and the course of auto drivers, the waters and will no doubt also continue to do the same in the future.

The Newark street car strike is on. But then the doctors say that walking is the best exercise in the world.

A shortage of agricultural labor is reported but there are plenty of people willing to serve as farm advisers.

Who can remember the kind of ball team Cincinnati used to have? Well, it's different now.

Did You Know?

That today, August 15, is the birthday of Sir W. Scott? He was born in Edinburgh in 1771. He came of an old border family, the Scotts of Harden, an offshoot from the house of Buccleuch. He had a fund of telling old stories when he was a boy at school. He was admitted to the bar and practiced with fair success, occupying his leisure with literature. His first publications were translations and these were followed by a series of fine ballads. "Waverley" was published in 1814 without his name and was rapidly succeeded by a series of novels that won instant popularity. In 1829 a baronetcy was bestowed upon him. Financial misfortune necessitated hard work for the next ten years, and he produced more than twenty novels in this time. In 1830 he was stricken with paralysis. He died at Abbotsford in 1832 and was buried in the old Abbey of Dryburgh.

Rules.

Some rules we hate, some rules we praise.

Some rules cause us to stall;
For, while some rules will work both ways.

Some rules won't work at all.

—Luke McLuke.

But in these days of H. C. L.

There's no room for shirk,
And if a rule won't work, then—well,

It should be made to work.

Tonight's Game.
Wehrle vs. B. and O.

The shoe men and the autoists stung their last game of the Twilight league last night. Only the most daring base running saved the Hess men from a shutout, while the Midland team headed up the runs. Shortstop Baisch was responsible for several hits when he fielded the ball perfectly but was glued to spot and failed to throw the ball. Rupp hit in the first inning left on base. Young's single in the third left him stranded on base when the next batter fanned, the second rolled out, and Smith walked but was caught off first. Smith hit into a double play in the sixth. Rupp's single to center in the seventh gave him opportunity to steal second then third in lightning quick order. The following batter fanned. Rupp tapped when Lusk's peg to third hit Rupp in the shoe and glanced off at the bad ankle. Baisch fanned and Newkirk fisted to short for the final out of the game.

Hibler started the parade of scores for the solo men in the first inning when his erector was fumigated. Four hits followed when the other eight Midlanders fanned and five runs were registered. To the third frame Finneran led off with a walk and tallied with House when Spiegel singled. Spiegel scored on McCarty's double. The fourth frame netted the shoe men three more runs. Finneran was the only Midlander man to score in the sixth and he also carried of the honor of scoring every time at bat.

Other bright lights in the contest were the double play in the sixth, House three hits out of four, Noblick's slippery "slam" ball. Burke joined the "D. S. O."

Hot Tea and Frozen Cream Very Constipating

THERE is little inclination for solid food on a hot day. Cold drinks and ices, salads and pastry form much of the diet, especially among women. This lack of wholesome variety, however, interferes with proper digestion.

The result is biliousness, listlessness, dizzy spells. The cause is constipation. The stomach could not digest the bowels pass off the day's strange mixture of food and drink.

A simple way of overcoming the trouble is this: If you have not already got Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin in the house go to a drug store and buy a 50c or $1 bottle. Take a teaspoonful tonight before you go to bed. It will act in the morning, and immediately thereafter your head will be clear and that feeling of oppression will be gone.

Syrup Pepsin is a combination of simple laxative herbs with pepsin. It acts on the stomach-muscles training them to do their work naturally so that medicine can be dispensed with. It is the most widely used laxative compound in the world. That means merit.

A free sample bottle can be had by sending your address to Dr. W. B. Caldwell, 480 Washington St., Monticello, Ill.

Cooper of Newark, who actually delivered $160,300 worth of War Savings Stamps during the period of the contest. The second high man was A. H. Flory of Wauseon, who sold $86,115, and the third man E. A. Keller of Chillicothe who sold $82,580 of W. S. S.

In addition to the above three carriers sold in excess of $30,000 in stamps: O. E. Brumfield, Wellston, $66,700; A. L. Vanordell, Ashland, $61,115; L. F. Baier, Marion, $51,860.

Having won not only the state but national championship by his remarkable showing, Mr. Cooper and his country of Licking are receiving widespread publicity. OF ZANESVILLE
LOST 60 POUNDS

Could Not Sleep, Nor Eat, Dragged Around in Half-Hearted Way; Full of Pain and Aches, Friends Were Alarmed.

Found Health in Dresco.

For the past 21 years Mr. John N. Johnson has been in the employ of the Courier Printing Co. of Zanesville, O. and held in high esteem by this concern. In a letter just given for publication, he says:

"I used to weigh 210 pounds, but fell off to 150. I had no energy to do a thing, but dragged myself around at my work. My stomach was full of gas all the time; bowels bound up; kidneys didn't act right; had dull, aching pains in my back; was very nervous and could not sleep. I knew my liver was inactive, for often had dizzy spells; bad taste in my mouth; tongue thick, coated tongue. I was in such poor condition that my friends became alarmed over my condition. I tried several remedies without any success but this new medicine Dresco has sure gone to the bottom of my ail and brought relief.

"My appetite picked up right away, and my stomach digested the food without causing gas; pains left my back; my liver got active; also my bowels; I haven't had a dizzy spell lately, and gained six pounds on the first bottle of Dresco. It's great medicine and I feel better than in months. Feel full of energy again, not fatigued. Dresco is my advice to any one who reads this, and who is in the fix I was."

Dresco is composed of the juices and extracts of many herbal plants, and does not contain any iron, mercury, potash, acids or oils.

Mr. Powers, the well known Dresco expert, has headquarters at Evans' Cut Rate Drug store to meet the local public and explain the merits of this great remedy. See him today. Advt.

CAN RENEW GOVERNMENT INSURANCE FREE OF COST

A recent ruling of the treasury department makes it possible for men who have dropped or ceased their government insurance to reinstate their policies without paying the back premiums that have become due. This very liberal provision has been made because of the large number of men who have permitted their policies to lapse for nonpayment of premiums.

The government wants every man who was in the service to avail himself of the protection afforded by this insurance. The policies offered by the government are by far the cheapest and most liberal that a man can obtain.

Government insurance can be carried for five years at the same rate as was paid in the service. Within five years the policy must be converted to any one of six standard policies, in any amount from $1,000 to $10,000.

The Red Cross can supply you with blank forms for reinstatement and for converting your insurance. For information about anything pertaining to government insurance, call at the Red Cross office, 607-609 Trust building.

FORD GETS SIX CENT DAMAGES

Jury Awards Auto Dealer Minimum Sum In Suit Against Chicago Newspaper.

Mr. Clemens, Mich., Aug. 15.—A jury last night awarded Henry Ford six cents damages against the Chicago Tribune for calling him an anarchist.

Orry Hulett, foreman of the jury, said that they took "nine ballots that I can remember," the first one, according to Leonard Measel, another juror, standing eight to four for awarding Mr. Ford some damages.

"Does the award of six cents about express the feeling of the jury as to the case?" a reporter asked Mr. Hulett. "It just about does. That expresses our judgment."

Attorney Alfred J. Murphy for Mr. Ford said:

"The important issue in this case has been determined favorably to the plaintiff. He has been vindicated.

"Money damages were entirely subordinate and were not sought by Mr. Ford. He stands not only vindicated, but his attitude as an American citizen has been justified, after a trial which ingenuity and research could present. His friends are entirely satisfied."

Weymouth Kirkbyland of counsel for The Tribune said:

"We consider it a victory for the reason that Attorney Alfred Lucking, in closing for Mr. Ford, stated that anything less would be a substantial damage to his client."

The jury acknowledged the verdict as correct and hurried from the courtroom. None would discuss its deliberation in detail.

The whole proceedings were over with astonishing brevity. The whole scene did not require more than five minutes. The jurors brushed past reporters and down the stairs, where they were soon followed by the lawyers. Judge Tucker, the handful of spectators who had remained, and the court attaches.

One juror later stated that for six hours the ballots stood eight to four to give the plaintiff an award. Then two of the four joined the majority. The remaining two held out until nearly 8 o'clock, when they surrendered and the knock sounded on the door.

Mr. Ford was not in court. The Tribune was represented by Captain Joseph Medill Patterson, one of the publishers.

It was on June 23, 1916, after Mexican bandits had raided Columbus, N. M., and military preparedness was a burning issue, not only because of the Mexican menace, but because of the collaboration in Europe that the Chicago Tribune printed its famous editorial headed "Ford is an Anarchist."

Editorial writers of the Tribune testified that they had followed Mr. Ford's pacifistic propaganda, but had not recognized it as a real danger to the country until a news item was received from Detroit that Mr. Ford was trying to discourage the recruiting of the guard which had been ordered to the Rio Grande. The item, authentically given, was denied by Ford witnesses. It was stated that the Ford company could not pay the salaries of employees who went to the border, hold their places for them nor care for their dependents.

It was then that the editorial was written. It called Mr. Ford an "ignorant idealist" and remarked that his views on disarmament might be different if his factories were on the Rio Grande instead of the peaceful Canadian border.

Counsel for the manufacturer at first filed suit in the federal court at Chicago, but later withdrew it and instituted proceedings in the state court at Detroit. Here the Tribune applied for a change of venue and Judge James G. Tucker, of the circuit court of Macomb county, at Mt. Clemens, was agreed upon to hear the case. Selection of a date was made May 12. It consisted of eleven names, one being roadbuilder.

A feature of the case was the production by the defendant of more than twenty witnesses from the Mexican border to testify to raids, murders and other acts which to the mind of Tribune counsel established the fact that there was a condition of anarchy along the border.

Professor Reeves of the University of Michigan, appearing as an expert, testified that many of the Ford utterances were in accordance with the teachings of well-recognized anarchists. He gave definitions of the word "anarchist" no reference to bomb throwing, but which denoted one who works to overturn the government.

Counsel for the defendant argued that government exists only so far as it can enforce its decrees and protect the lives and property of its citizens, that without force there can be no government and that where there is no government there is anarchy. Therefore, they sought to establish that in opposing the recruiting of soldiers Mr. Ford opposed government itself, and, by the same token, sought to establish anarchy.

Therefore, they sought to establish that in opposing the recruiting of soldiers Mr. Ford opposed government itself and, by the same token, sought to establish anarchy. Hence "Ford is an Anarchist," they said. The defense brought out was one of justification and the right of fair comment.

Bishop Charles D. Williams, Episcopal Bishop of Eastern Michigan, as one of the principal witnesses for the plaintiff. Many of Mr. Ford's utterances which he said, also, were in accordance with the spirit of the writings of non-anarchistic philosophers.

As to the Ford propaganda, he drew the distinction that a man might mistakenly advocate policies which would result in anarchism, without himself being an anarchist. If his object was to establish anarchism, then he could be characterized as an anarchist. Mr. Ford's object, it was stated, was to establish universal peace.

Counsel for Mr. Ford attempted to prove that the editorial was written in the most specific manner, as well as the most forcible manner, in the spirit of the editorial. To this, the defense argued that the Tribune was bigoted and that its advocacy of intervention in Mexico was a mask to hide friendship for Germany.

The theory advanced was that the intervention American troops could be diverted from the shores of Germany.

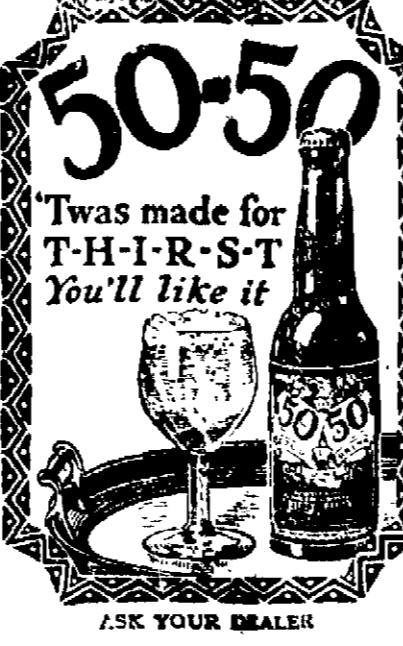

Mr. Ford did not accept the definitions of anarchism given by Professor Reeves. He personally as a witness was supported by other jurors, insisted that he was not the Tribune's meant by the old fashioned bomb thrower of the "Popeye" type.

His last asserted was the impression that Tribune readers would get from the editorial.

Mr. Ford did not accept the definitions of anarchism given by Professor Reeves. He personally as a witness was supported by other jurors, insisted that he was not the Tribune's meant by the old fashioned bomb thrower of the "Popeye" type.

The bearing was one of the longest in the world, according to counsel. Testimony approximated 250,000 words.

Chinese are estimated to raise 100,000,000 pigs annually.

WAR WORK

of the discharge certificates be deferred until the close of the month. Mr. Gard struck a popular chord. Chairman Wright called for remarks and every man who spoke heartily endorsed Mr. Gard's proposal. Among those who spoke in favor of continuing the campaign and who promised further work and additional subscriptions were Thos. F. Noland, chairman of Perry township; J. M. Fowler, chairman of Hanover; T. C. Jury, chairman of Licking; S. L. Dustheimer, chairman of Franklin; E. A. Divan, chairman of Fallsburg; A. E. Hoskinson, chairman of McKean; Real Johnston, chairman of Madison; Arthur Wyeth, chairman of Liberty; Frank Loyd, chairman of Washington; Edward A. Ottman of Utica; Dr. Coburn, chairman of Burlington; Dr. C. L. Wyeth and Ralph Wyeth, city division leaders, and Andrew S. Mitchell, chairman of the speakers' bureau.

The county chairman of the War Savings committee expressed hearty appreciation of the organization's action and read the following telegram from Secretary John A. Kelley of the state committee: "The remarkable response of the people of Licking county in the Victory shaft campaign is the most inspiring feature of the war savings campaign in Ohio since its inception. Your sales in the aggregate are now approaching those of the larger cities in the state. While competition is developing more rapidly, we believe that the whole-hearted support of all the people and unremitting effort should bring the reward so richly deserved, yet we would not advise watchful waiting, but rather wittering work. Men of strong determination seek to wrest the shaft from your county."

The county which now ranks second in the race is Warren, with a population of 24,000. Morrow county, having 16,815, stands third in the nation. Warren's sales here must be 2½ times those of Warren and four times those of Morrow. Last year Morrow county had a national record of $40 per capita. Last year Licking county's per capita sale was $25.

In the course of his introductory address, Chairman Wright paid a tribute to the late Jasper M. Keckley, who was an active member of the organization. He spoke of the splendid work that has been done in every campaign and suggested a reunion of members in 1920.

Rev. Lewis P. Franklin, president of the Licking county chapter of the Red Cross, who has done very effective work all through the war, gave a magnificent address reviewing briefly the purposes and accomplishments of the war and laying stress upon the great part taken by the army back home. In the course of his address Mr. Franklin hinted at the thought of continuing the present drive until the job is done and he was happy when the men unanimously decided to keep up the sale of stamps until Licking county's war record is made to read 100 per cent. A strong feature of Mr. Franklin's address was his reference to the present conditions in this country and his declaration that the United States must not be ruled by any class but that majority rule must prevail.

During the meeting announcement was made that J. G. Cooper, Licking county mailcarrier, is about to be presented with a national championship medal by the United States government for his sale of $160,300 worth of W. S. S. The medal will be presented to Cooper in Cleveland on Sunday as he starts in his prize-trip to Mackinac and the Soo.

Surprisingly good reports were submitted by many of the leaders but in nearly every case announcement was made that big additions will be made within the next two weeks.

The pleasure of the evening's program was increased by the presence of several musicians. Miss Schaller sang "At Dawning," Miss Schaller and Miss Under rendered "Sweetheart," while Emil Lautenshousen sang "The Patriotic Song," with Teal Telser on drums. Miss Baden sang "I'm Always Chasing Rainbows," and with Miss Schaller gave the duet "Beautiful Ohio." John Kisanove was the violinist and John Bergamo played the clarinet. The music was arranged by Geo. M. Fenberg, city manager of the campaign, and was very delightful.

Before adjourning to meet at a report dinner, 6:30 o'clock Friday evening, August 29, the day before the shaft contest closes, A. S. Mitchell urged the importance of preaching "Victory shaft" to the people of the county and to impress upon them the value of winning the prize. It is the only memorial to be given in any state. To win it will give Licking county national distinction. Through Cooper's success this country has been given advertising all over America that could not have been purchased at a cost of thousands of dollars.

The special committee which reported a large subscription last night consisted of Messrs. W. H. Mazeys, Rev. Emerson, Robert W. Smith, A. Schiff, A. R. Lindner, C. T. Bricker, Frank L. Beegs, Charles C. McGruder and Capt. John S. Fleck.

The war organization is out to win the Victory shaft for Old Licking. Buy stamps in August and win. It can be done.
